

EOPS - CalWORKs/CARE

Nayelli Mireles

Submitted by Victoria Navarro

Nayelli, a dedicated single parent and proud participant in CalWORKs and EOPS, is preparing to reach an incredible milestone—graduation. Her journey has been marked by perseverance, strength, and an unwavering commitment to both her education and her child. Balancing the demands of parenthood with the responsibilities of being a full-time student is no easy task, yet Nayelli has remained focused and determined through every challenge. She has shown resilience in moments of stress, discipline in her studies, and deep love in her role as a parent. Nayelli's ability to stay committed despite obstacles is a true reflection of her character and drive. As she approaches graduation, she not only celebrates academic success but also the powerful example she sets for her family and her daughter. Her journey is a reminder that with dedication and heart, even the most challenging paths can lead to meaningful and inspiring accomplishments.
