

Political Science and Law and Society

Maya McGrane

Submitted by Andrea Haupt

We are delighted to recognize Maya McGrane as the Outstanding Student in Political Science of the 2025-2026 academic year. Maya has distinguished herself through consistently strong academic performance in our Political Science and Law and Society classes. She approaches course material with intellectual curiosity and her steady commitment to her studies is evident in both the quality of her work and her participation in the classroom. Congratulations, Maya!