

School of Justice Studies

Juan Anguiano Zavala

Submitted by David Saunders

Juan Anguiano Zavala was selected as the School of Justice Studies' Outstanding Student of the Year for his exceptional character, commitment, and service. He first connected with SBCC as a local high school student through the Running Start program, quickly distinguishing himself through his work ethic and professionalism. After enrolling, he made such a strong impression on the EOPS team that he was offered a position with the program. Juan is also a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society, reflecting his academic excellence. He is on a clear path to become a California Highway Patrol officer and is committed to serving Santa Barbara County. Juan embodies integrity, compassion, and the trust our communities need in law enforcement.