Adrian Arias

Submitted by Katie Laris

Adrian made a distinct impression from his first day at SBCC; he is so positive, funny and engaged. He never missed a class, and is always remarkably responsible and kind. He is someone who epitomizes the idea of saying yes in that he builds on every moment, making every scene and interaction better because of his contributions. Adrian has embraced acting and directing with passion and has been cast every semester and in every summer musical which is a true testament to the scope of his range and talent. He is always able to transform into exactly what the precise character and the play demand. He has brought so much heart and inspiration and joy to everyone in our department.
