

Vocational Nursing Department

Andrea Angeles

Submitted by Maureen Horner, Assistant Director

I am recommending Andrea Angeles for Student of the Year. Andrea has consistently demonstrated an exceptional level of dedication, academic excellence, and compassion throughout her time in this program.

As a student, Andrea stands out not only for her strong academic performance, but also for her commitment to helping others succeed. She has been a dedicated tutor, generously giving her time and energy to support her peers. What truly sets her apart is her patience—Andrea works especially well with students seeking help to grasp difficult concepts, never showing frustration and always ensuring they feel supported and encouraged.

In addition to her academic and tutoring strengths, Andrea is wonderful when working with patients. She demonstrates professionalism, empathy, and a calm demeanor, all of which are essential qualities in a clinical or service-oriented setting.

Andrea's reliability is equally impressive. She has never been late and has maintained perfect attendance throughout all three semesters of the program. This level of consistency speaks volumes about her responsibility and commitment.

Andrea Angeles embodies the qualities we hope to see in a soon to be nurse: intelligence, compassion, dedication, and integrity. I strongly believe she is more than deserving of this recognition.
